

Title / Titel

The ECQA Qualification Scheme, the Certified SPI Manager Qualification and the SPI Manifesto

Speaker(s) / Referent(en)

Tomas Schweigert, SQS (D)

To whom is the presentation addressed? / An wen richtet sich der Beitrag?

Attendees should have responsibility for processes and process improvement or work as experts in this business area

Keywords / Stichwörter

The ECQA and its Job Roles, Process Improvement, Process Deployment, Involvement on Management and Performer Level, SPI Manifesto.

Abstract / Zusammenfassung

This workshop is the official dissemination event of the ECQA certified SPI Manager Profession.

The ECQA Qualification Scheme supports a wide range of professions all over Europe. The workshop give a short overview over ECQA, its professions and the procedure of development and accreditation of a profession.

The workshop will give an overview over the content of the job role SPI Manager

- The Skill Set
- The Training
- The Examination and Certification Scheme

The workshop will also address the benefits of this scheme

- There are lots of highly qualified SPI Experts which have developed their qualification by practical experience. The SPI Manager qualification scheme provides a certificate of qualification that is accepted all over Europe.
 - From a management perspective the SPI Manager qualification also provides benefits. By defining the content of the SPI Manager profession the scheme supports effective and efficient hiring procedures.
-

Biography / Biografie

Tomas Schweigert joins SQS in 1991. During his professional career at SQS he was involved in Test Process Assessment and Improvement Projects and also in System and Software Process Assessments. Tomas Schweigert is intacs certified ISO/IEC 15504 (SPICE) Principal Assessor. Beneath the daily Project Business he supports the Development of TEST SPICE and is Head of the international SPI Manager Job Role Committee.

Contact information / Kontaktinformationen

tomas.schweigert@sqs.de
